

Adult Summer Reading Program
Beginning Genealogy
Tuesday, August 06, 6:30–7:30 PM
Community Meeting Room

Interested in learning more about your family history? Come learn about the basics of studying genealogy!

Presented by Jeanette Sheliga.

Free and open to the public. No registration required.

Jeanette Sheliga of Jeanette's Genealogy lives in Lockport, NY, and has been researching her family tree since 2002 and lecturing since 2011. She has had the privilege to speak for societies and libraries locally and virtually all over the world. Jeanette is the President of the Virtual Genealogical Association (VGA); she holds positions in local, state, and national societies; she has completed the study groups of ProGen 49 and ProGen Practicum 02; and she has attended many genealogy institutes.

Lockport Public Library, 23 East Avenue Lockport, NY 14094

(716) 433-5935  www.lockportlibrary.org